

Oboe d'Amore The Movie

I f this doesn't convince you, nothing will. OK, so the music's a bit hard to take but at least it is Sardinian!

I've only produced one film so far. After all I'm a sailor not a Hollywood film producer and movies take a lot of time to make. It was fun to do, however and brought a smile to my face as I remembered the good times sailing with friends and relatives from Dartmouth, UK along the coasts of France, Spain, Portugal, popping across to N Africa after a brief stop in Gibraltar before the Balearics and our current resting place - Sardinia, the Costa Smerelda.

Enjoy the short film that captures the essence of a sailing holiday on Oboe d'Amore. Taken on location in and around Sardinia, Corsica and the Maddelena Islands nestled in the Bonifacio Straits.
